Los Angeles, CA (Jan 18, 2016) – In March, Country Club Receptions (CCR) will host its third annual Wedding Show Weekend at over 40 country clubs and golf courses located across the country. Wedding Show Weekend gives soon-to-be-newlyweds an opportunity to meet wedding event planners and coordinators, sample food & beverage from Country Club Receptions' preferred wedding vendors, tour beautiful wedding-ready venues, and even win wedding-related prizes.

During this year's event, three-hour shows will take place on Saturday, March 12 and Sunday, March 13; states with participating venues include California, Idaho, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Oregon, New Jersey, Georgia, Washington, Tennessee, and Texas. Attendees are invited to attend one, or multiple venues and shows in the same area, as their schedule allows. Over the course of Wedding Show Weekend, Country Club Receptions will give away $20,000; one lucky winner will walk away with a $10,000 Grand Prize, which can be applied towards a dream wedding at any Country Club Receptions venue. CCR will also give away $10,000 in smaller prizes. Attendance at all of the Wedding Show Weekend events is free, and registration can be made online at www.weddingshowweekend.com.

"We are greatly looking forward to this year's Wedding Show Weekend and believe it will be the best year yet," said Troy Sacco, VP of Sales at Country Club Receptions. "The huge success of our past events has allowed us to add a ton of new vendors, new venues, and more activities to help couples achieve the weddings they've always wanted."
